Dear Applicants and Parent/Guardians:

Central Elementary is pleased to announce the "Central Elementary School Casual Dress Scholarship." The scholarship will be awarded to one graduating senior going into the field of education. The scholarship recipient will be selected by specific criteria established by the Central Elementary Casual Dress Scholarship Committee which is detailed on the back of this sheet. This scholarship award is made possible by the Central Elementary Causal Dress Committee.

Applications for the scholarships need to be submitted to the Linden High School Counseling Office prior to or on the date due. The quality and completeness of the application will serve as a key component of the selection process. Central Elementary strongly encourages all eligible students going into the field of education to apply.

Should you have any questions or require additional information, please contact the Counseling Office.

Sincerely,

Central Elementary School
